LOCAL ATTORNEYS ACQUIRE VITAL ESTATE PLANNING TRAINING AT NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Madison – Estate Planning Attorneys Michelle T.L. Hernandez and Dera L. Johnsen-Tracy attended an educational conference in San Diego, CA on October 7-12th sponsored by the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys. The Academy is the premier national educational organization that promotes excellence in estate planning by providing member attorneys with research and vital updates in estate, tax and business planning law since 1993. The advanced educational training included Asset Protection Strategies with noted author and speaker Jay Adkisson, Probate and Trust Administration presented by Dennis Sandoval, highly sought after estate planning and elder law attorney, and Bombproofing Your Trust presented by nationally recognized attorney Bruce Ross. Further training focused on Funeral Trusts and Recent Developments on Estate Tax Update Legislation and Regaining Capacity. In addition to these important and timely topics, other sessions focused on the specific responsibilities that almost all pet owners have when planning their estates to avoid having family pets “inherited by a local shelter.”

Attorneys Hernandez and Johnsen-Tracy focus their practice exclusively on estate and elder law planning. “I regularly attend the American Academy Events because I recognize the value of continuing education,” says Atty. Hernandez. “Not only are the sessions incredibly informative, but the face-to-face time with like-minded attorneys pushes me to make my practice the best it can possibly be for my clients.”

“Families need to know their loved ones and pets are taken care of during these uncertain times. There is a great need for a sense of security and by attending these educational events I’m able to have the most cutting edge options available for my clients,” says Atty. Johnsen-Tracy. “I have the utmost confidence that my clients will leave completely satisfied with their experience at Krueger & Hernandez SC.”

The law firm of Krueger & Hernandez SC is an active member of the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys and the only firm accepted into the Academy in the Madison area.
